THE WINNERS OF THE CROCODILE CHALLENGE CUP 2013 (PRI 5 & PRI 6 CATEGORIES) WILL WIN AN OVERSEAS EXPERIENCE TRAINING AND COMPETING AT THE ITTF HOPES WEEK

The Crocodile Challenge Cup 2013 edition (29 May – 2 June 2013) features 239 young participants from 54 primary schools. This event is the perfect arena for primary school players to develop their abilities in this competitive table tennis sport. Every year, these young participants will face stiff competition as each school will send their best players to participate in the Crocodile Challenge Cup.

This year, we are pleased to announce that champions from the Primary 5 & 6 categories of the Crocodile Challenge Cup will be sent to the ITTF World Hopes Week & Challenge in Austria.

The ITTF World Hopes Week & Challenge is opened to youths between 11-12 years old and will be held in Austria at the Werner Schlager Academy from 9-17 June 2013. This year, it will consist of a four days training camp and three days of competition in mixed teams & singles.

Mr Lawrence Wong, Acting Minister for Culture, Community and Youth and Senior Minister of State, Ministry of Communications and Information graced the closing ceremony on 2 June 2013 at Velocity.
