

COMPETITION MANIPULATIONS: LEARN YOUR RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS AND REPORT!

Rule 43 of the Olympic Charter

World Anti-Doping Code and the Olympic Movement – Code on the Prevention of Manipulation of Competitions:

Compliance with the World Anti-Doping Code and the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of Manipulation of Competitions is mandatory for the whole Olympic Movement.

The phenomenon of competition manipulation undermines the Olympic values as well as the credibility and inspirational value of sport.

Competition manipulation is when an athlete or official cheats to remove the unpredictability of a competition. They may cheat to lose a competition or part of it, which is entirely against the Olympic spirit.

In order to prevent the proliferation of competition manipulations, all athletes should be well aware of the Code of Conduct of the Olympic Movement Unit on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Sport Competitions:

BE TRUE BE YOU BELIEVE IN SPORT

CODE OF CONDUCT

NEVER bet on your own sport or the Olympic Games.

NEVER manipulate a competition and always do your best.

NEVER share inside information. Non-public information about your sport stays private.

ALWAYS report an approach to manipulate or anything suspicious:

Rules and Violations

In order to best fight against the phenomenon the IOC adopted in December 2015 the Olympic Movement Code on the Prevention of the Manipulation of Competitions. Breaches of the Olympic Movement Code are sanctionable.

The breaches of the Olympic Movement Code include 6 main actions/omissions:

- Betting on one's sport
- Sharing of inside information
- Corrupt conduct / manipulation
- Failure to cooperate
- Failure to report

ALWAYS REPORT & CONTRIBUTE TO KEEPING SPORT INSPIRATIONAL

Relevant breaches of the Code not only undermine the credibility of your sport, but also the credibility of the overall sports movement and all athletes. It is therefore not only a responsibility, but also a moral duty of all of us to report anything that comes to our attention and looks suspicious. It is our right and responsibility to contribute to protect the moral integrity of our fellow athletes and our sport, by informing in a safe way, any potential breach that comes to our attention.
