MEDIA RELEASE

The Crocodile Challenge Cup is back!

The Singapore Table Tennis Association (STTA) ended its first local tournament – Crocodile Challenge Cup today since the country's implementation of Covid-19 related measures earlier this year. The Crocodile Challenge Cup Finals was graced by Mr Gan Kim Yong, Minister for Health.

The Crocodile Challenge Cup was held from 14 to 20 December 2020, provided the perfect competitive arena for primary school players to develop their abilities as an individual. The best young talents across the island came together and pitted their table tennis skills against each other at the tournament.

This year, a record number of 67 primary schools participated in this prestigious tournament. The tournament took place behind closed doors at STTA, with only athletes, officials, and crew onsite. The final day action was broadcast live on STTA Facebook.
