Table Tennis: Izaac Quek and Annett Kaufmann, clinch silver in U19 Mixed Doubles at International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF) World Youth Championships in Nova Gorica, Slovenia.

Izaac Quek (郭勇), 17 years old of Singapore and Annett Kaufmann, 17 years old of Germany, emerged runners up in the Under-19 mixed doubles category at the ITTF World Youth Championships held in Nova Gorica, Slovenia.

In a hard-fought battle against the Chinese pair of Lin Shidong and Kuai Man, Izaac and Annett claimed the first set 12-10, before the Chinese stormed back to win next three sets 11-4, 11-4, 11-8 to clinch the title.

Earlier on, Izaac and Matsushima Sora of Japan clinched their place in the U-19 Boys Doubles after outlasting the Korean pair of Oh Junsong and Gil Minseok to win 3-2. They will face the Chinese pair of Lin and Wen Ruibo in the final on Saturday.

This impressive showing at the ITTF World Youth Championships adds another milestone for Izaac, underlining his status as one of the rising stars in the world of table tennis.
